

ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

PLEASE READ

Under present procedures your application and plan may be subjected to a 2 phase review before final approval is granted allowing you to begin work on your project.

The Zoning Board of Appeals meets the third Wednesday of the month. An agenda will be forwarded to you prior to the meeting. The phases and steps are:

Your application and plan must be filed by the 15th of the month. It is forwarded to the Zoning Board of Appeals for a Public Hearing. Based on your application, your input and possible neighbor comments, the Zoning Board will render a decision. You should be present at this meeting. Be prepared to respond to detailed questions about your project. If, for any reason, your application is tabled at the scheduled ZBA meeting, it must be heard at the next scheduled meeting, no further tabling of the application will be allowed.

The Zoning Board may possibly, as a stipulation of approval, require you to submit a detailed SITE PLAN to the Planning Board to refine your project and insure it complies with the needs of the Town. This SITE PLAN should be drawn in a professional manner, to scale showing precise measurements and other pertinent data as it applies to your particular project. A SITE PLAN REVIEW outline can be obtained from the Zoning Enforcement Officer.

The Planning Board assures that your end project will be in full compliance with Town requirements. Only when the Planning Board ascertains and is satisfied that your plan has met the necessary criteria will they grant final approval and you will be able to start your project.

*Remember---*If there is a structure involved in your plan, or major renovations are necessary, you will be required to obtain a Building Permit.
